All aboard little theatre's HMS Pinafore

By Jenn Watt

The Highlands Little Theatre is ready to set sail on a new voyage this season, presenting HMS Pinafore at the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion.

A cast of local thespians is readying themselves to present the Gilbert and Sullivan musical, set on a ship anchored off the coast of England.

"One of the sailors, who is a commoner, falls in love with the captain's daughter and she with him. But because of their difference in rank they're not allowed to be together. And she is promised in marriage to this Sir Joseph and he shows up with his entourage of ladies – sisters, cousins and aunts – who go along with him. Ultimately it's a love story," says Amy Brohm, stage manager of the production.

"If they enjoyed Pirates last year they'll definitely enjoy it. The music is great, the singing is amazing," she says.

Last year, the little theatre group mounted the ambitious Pirates of Penzance, a raucous musical led on the piano by Bill Gliddon.

The cast and crew of HMS Pinafore is getting ready to bring you a hilarious musical by Gilbert and Sullivan. Tickets are now on sale for the show, which has its opening night Thursday, March 31. Photo by Lauren Forbes

Gliddon's back again this year, as are several of the cast members.

Occupying the lead roles this year are Chris Chumbley, Hannah Klose, Wayne Cooper, Guy Pritchard, Stephen Thayer, Barry Wilhelm, Ruth Carter and Sarah Patrick.

As always, the show is a true community affair, with Chris Simpson and his class at the high school helping to create the sets. Pat Piche is the stage director.

Brohm says there are several fun interpretations of the play to be discovered, including when the women arrive, brought in by a barge that moves in front of the stage. There's also a bit of audience interaction, she says.

"It's Gilbert and Sullivan so there's lots of making fun of the aristocracy," she says.

HMS Pinafore is being performed Thursday, March 31; Friday, April 1; Saturday, April 2 at 7:30 p.m. with a Sunday matinee on April 3 at 2 p.m.

Tickets are $25 (including tax) and can be purchased through Jim Frost at 705-457-4031 or at Cranberry Cottage in Haliburton and Pharmasave in Minden.

David Newland brings the Northwest Passage to Haliburton

When David Newland was growing in Central Ontario near Parry Sound, he never thought he'd one day travel the Northwest Passage. But the host, songwriter and lead vocalist of "The Northwest Passage in Story and Song" credits his childhood for starting him off right.

"I learned to drive boats and love the outdoors at a very young age. And Canada became my greatest passion," says Newland. That passion drives his stage show, which combines photos, video, spoken word and songs based on his Arctic journeys with Adventure Canada.

Newland drives Zodiacs, hosts and performs on expedition cruises to the fabled Northwest Passage, as well as Labrador, Greenland and other remote destinations. A veteran singer-songwriter and host on the folk circuit, Newland has made multiple festival appearances, and hosts the long-running Gordon Lightfoot celebration "The Way We Feel."

In November of 2015, Newland was named a Fellow of the Royal Canadian Geographical Society, whose mandate is "To make Canada better known to Canadians and the world."

He says the appointment was a huge honour. "I can't think of anything I'd rather do than to tell Canadian stories and to try to come to a greater appreciation of this land."

Newland says the Haliburton stop will be a special one. "I loved presenting here last winter about my Arctic travels," he says. "The audience appreciates Canadian stories. To share the songs inspired by the Northwest Passage and to bring my band is going to be a real treat."

As mentioned on CBC Radio's Fresh Air, Newland is touring Ontario, accompanied by Steafan Hannigan, Saskia Tomkins and Oisin Hannigan, and Sam Allison (Lotus Wight).

The Northwest Passage in Story and Song: Thursday, March 24, 7 p.m. at the HHOA Fish Hatchery, 6712 Gelert Road.

Presented by Yours Outdoors's "Telling Our Stories" series. Cost is $10 per person with part of the proceeds donated to a local conservation organization. To register call 705-754-3436 or email info@yoursoutdoors.ca.

The big D

Alanna Jean

Natural Living

Vitamin D is important for so many different functions in our body. It contributes to bone health, calcium absorption, glowing skin, weight management, sleep patterns and general well-being. This magical sunshine vitamin is easily absorbed into our bodies through our skin, and then stored in our fat, but unfortunately here in North America we are very susceptible to Vitamin D deficiencies (especially in the dark winter months).

The good news is there are other ways to ensure we do not become deficient. When looking for a Vitamin D supplement, be sure to check that it is D3 (Cholecalciferol) rather than D2 (ergocalciferol). D3 has many biological means that contribute to better absorbability and effectiveness. I recommend 5,000IU a day throughout the winter, and 3,000IU a day during the sunny summer months. Another fantastic way to get your vitamin D in is through food, specifically fish, liver and egg yolks. Keep smiling – spring is on its way!

Alanna Jean is a certified nutritional practitioner specializing in weight-loss and stress management. She lives on Long Lake. You can contact her at 647-239-5445, www.AlannaJeanNutrition.com, instagram.com/LannaGreens.

Celebrate health and happiness at the Run of Exploding Colour

The Run of Exploding Colour 5k is coming to Huntsville, on Sunday, May 22. This 5k is not a race, but rather an opportunity for you and your friends to celebrate health and happiness while getting plastered in explosions of beautiful colour along the way. If it sounds ridiculous, it's because it is. Ridiculously fun!

This event is open to individuals, families and groups. The registration fee is $40 which includes a custom T-shirt and sunglasses. On the day of the event, registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. and the event will run from 2 to 4 p.m. It is a go-at-your-own-pace event with no timed runs. At each kilometre marker, participants will have eco-friendly coloured powder thrown on them to create a fun and creative experience. At the end of the race, participants have the opportunity to have their picture taken while our colour cannon sends colour soaring into the air.

The Run of Exploding Colour is also an opportunity for us to give back and help promote the great work of local charities and non-profits. Any of these groups can sign up with us and use the event as a launchpad for their own fundraising efforts by having runners they recruit fundraise for their organization. We are excited to announce that many organizations in and around Huntsville have already partnered with us. It is not a requirement to fundraise as anyone can sign up just to have the experience of The Run of Exploding Colour without raising money.

The Run of Exploding Colour is run by Storyboard Cultural Community Endeavours, a registered non-profit organization whose mission is to plan annual events that promotes good work and good people.

For more information or to register for the run please visit www.explodingcolour.com.

The meaning of Good Friday

Good Friday is a Christian holiday that is celebrated every year on the Friday preceding Easter Sunday. Good Friday commemorates the crucifixion of Jesus Christ and his death at Calvary, the location outside of Jerusalem's walls where the crucifixion took place.

Though Good Friday is considered a holiday and is a legal holiday in many countries across the globe, the commemoration is not characterized by the festive atmosphere many holidays inspire. In fact, in the fourth century, the Apostolic Constitutions described Good Friday as a day of mourning and prayer. In addition, many Christians fast on Good Friday, eating only one full meal and two smaller meals that do not add up to a full meal.

Christians believe that commemorating the death of Christ helps to remind them of the sacrifices that Christ made and the human sin that contributed to his death.

The observance of Good Friday has existed for centuries. According to Catholic Online, the Catholic Church does not celebrate Mass on Good Friday, though church services held on Good Friday correspond to the divisions of a traditional Mass. These services include the Liturgy of the Word, during which the Passion of Jesus Christ is read; the intercessory prayers for all people, including non-Christians; the Veneration of the Cross, during which the crucifix is unveiled to the congregation; and the Holy Communion. During these services, the church organ and bells are silent.

Good Friday is one of the holiest days of the year for Christians across the globe. This year Good Friday is celebrated on March 25.

Social services office opens April 13

Residents of Haliburton County will have greater and easier access to services when the new social services office relocates to Haliburton on Wednesday, April 13.

"Being in Haliburton Village provides a much more central location for clients across Haliburton County who rely on our services," explained Social Services manager Janine Mitchell. "We are looking forward to continuing to serve our existing and future customers from this new central location."

In addition to programs like Ontario Works and Children's Services, staff at the Haliburton office will also provide Housing Help Services.

"These programs are critical to support people and families across Haliburton County," said Mitchell. "We want to provide the best possible service to those in need in a location that is accessible and convenient for them. I'm pleased that we have been able to address our clients' needs with this move."

Social Services and Housing Help Services will be located at 49 Maple Avenue, Unit 8 (the old doughnut shop), in Haliburton Village. Staff can be reached at 705- 457-4571.

Too much chocolate

Living Large

Humour by Steve Galea

These days you don't need a calendar to know when Easter's coming. All you need to do is visit the grocery store.

As Easter approaches the aisles will be filled with chocolate bunnies, eggs, cartoon characters, action figures and the like. Conversely, you'll know you missed Easter when all those items are listed at reduced prices.

As celebrations go, Easter is very special. It is the time of year when we celebrate an incredible, almost unbelievable miracle – that bunnies and eggs could be made out of chocolate.

The downside is it is easy for your children to eat too much chocolate. Here are 10 indications this might have happened.

1. When you can't find your child until you look to see the ceiling.
2. When you catch your kid trying to mainline chocolate syrup.
3. When your children run into the bush with a bottle of chocolate syrup hunting for rabbits.
4. When you are not sure if that blur that passed you was the Road Runner or your child.
5. When you have to stop your kid just before he starts gnawing on the ear of your chocolate lab.
6. When you have to explain to the police that the "suspicious" digging in your yard after midnight was your kid looking for more eggs.
7. When your kid is caught poaching on an Easter Egg hunt down the road.
8. When your neighbour comments "Boy, your kids sure enjoy the trampoline you bought them for Easter" – which would be fine, except you didn't buy them one.
9. When you have to monitor your kids around rabbit pellets for three weeks after.
10. When every rabbit in the neighbourhood has a bite out of its ear.
